Questionnaire

During your first year, we ask that your family serves on one to two committees and helps with one activity. Under the guidance of the committee chair and other committee members, you will learn the operation of the committees and will assist in carrying out their responsibilities. Below is a list of committees with a brief description of each. More detailed descriptions of each committee are available in the membership binder that you will receive. Please check the committees that you have an interest in.

- Soccer: Coordinate instructional soccer program. Recruit coaches, sponsors, and referees, schedule games, arrange picture day, order equipment and materials, set up and run soccer tournament.
- Pool: Open, maintain, and close the swimming pool. Arrange inspection, ensure proper maintenance and chemical levels, identify equipment needs and arrange repairs.
- Learn to Swim: Coordinate swimming instruction at the WGRC pool. Hire lifeguards and schedule swim program sessions.
- Day Camp: Plan and organize summer day camp and before and after care programs. Hire and train staff, purchase equipment and materials for the camp programs.
- Summer/Winter Athletics: Set up athletic programs including golf, tennis, volleyball, basketball, and wrestling. Schedule sessions, arrange contracts, purchase equipment and materials.
- Campsite: Opening, maintaining, improving and closing the camp facility (all members work at the opening and closing). Includes arranging and scheduling of repairs and new construction projects.
- Publicity: Produce and secure advertising for WGRC Program Guide. Place WGRC news items in local newspapers.
- Ways and Means: Run the concession stand at the soccer tournament. Design and construct the WGRC 4th of July parade float.
- Fundraising: Plan annual reverse raffle and other fundraising events.
- Activities: Plan Christmas and Halloween parties, summer campout, luau and other group events.
